See You IN CHURCH Sunday

Here is Seoul, Korea, the City of Blood. Will Seoul be the last terrible tribute to man's lust for war? Pictured here as U. N. Troops enter, she is beautiful but "it is the beginning of the end for Seoul." Today she is a city of devastation! Houses and land and humanity, children and women and men...stunted, starved and spiritless, huddled in masses of helplessness. That is what we must see when we look at Seoul today. War is no solution. We fail when war takes the place of discussion and prayer and concession and adjustment. May History claim Seoul as the Front Line of Defense for God.

Let no man glorify war. It becomes more terrible as weapons make it more destructive. May God forgive a world that could find no better way! Destruction, famine, suffering, sorrow, rapine, hatred, degradation are found in Korea. Homes and schools and churches are gone and thousands of innocent and helpless people. Let's pray divine mercy on men who can find no better way. Drop a tear of penitence for the part you had in this terrible destruction. May God richly reward those who suffered most. May the miracle of Grace save our sons and speed the day of understanding and goodwill. . . . A-men.

You In The Church
The Church In You
Form a combination for good. We should attend church regularly. Every man, woman and child needs the influence of the CHURCH. Be Faithful! Be a Churchman.

Rev. Killman Lands 'On Wing and Prayer'

The Rev. J. Russell Killman, now traveling in the Far East on a Youth for Christ mission, escaped possible injury when the PBV which he and three other "team members" were riding crash landed on a Kimmen Island airstrip.

In Formosa Report 6, one of the periodic letters written by Mr. Killman to church members here, he states that the plane came in on a wing and a prayer. "We boarded the airplane in Taipei at 1:30 p.m. . . . We were flying at 500 feet to avoid being picked up by Communist radar on the mainland . . . I had just taken a motion picture out of the pilot's window when the light flashed on the cabin to fasten our seat belts. "The plane let down its landing gear and started in for a landing. I had just settled back and thanked the Lord for a safe trip when the noise started. The right wheel on the PBV didn't lock in place and we careened to the right, traveling about 100 mph. "Our safety belts were beginning to pull on our stomachs. After coming to a stop I looked out the emergency window and saw that we had come in on a wing and a prayer, for our left wheel and the right wing were all that had held the plane off the ground."

Mr. Killman and one of his associates, Ed Reese, entertained at a Chinese USO—Mr. Reese playing his accordion and Mr. Killman his trumpet. "After seven numbers by a Chinese string band and some more by a western style military band, it was our turn . . . We sang and played for the men and they brought down the house with applause . . . "The men were finally satisfied when we had given seven numbers. Even the Chinese movie stars who traveled with the USO team didn't get the ovation that a couple of preachers got for playing the gospel in march time. That gave us our introduction to the 2000 men . . . and all the big brass from the Chinese Army and Navy." They also spoke with 200 Chinese in Mandarin—and many, Mr. Killman writes, wanted to know more about the Bible. He is assistant pastor at the First Baptist Church in Torrance.

Youth Fellowship Group to Install Officers Sunday

Newly elected officers of the Methodist Youth Fellowship will be installed at the close of the morning service Sunday at the First Methodist Church here. Those to be installed are Harold Holmes, president; Carolyn Chapman, vice-president; Mary Lou Hutchison, secretary; Alda Mae Clarkson, treasurer; Claudia King, worship chairman; William Traw, community service; Kathy McKinley, world fellowship; Anna Lee Miller, recreation chairman.

The morning worship service begins at 10:50 a. m. The Rev. Clarence E. Miller, minister, will conduct the service and preach on the theme, "Pretense of Power." This sermon will be in keeping with the Lenten season, emphasizing the meaning of the Cross of Christ for individuals.

Sunday school sessions for all ages from 3 years of age up begins at 9:30 a. m. A second session of the Sunday school for children up through the third grade is conducted during the church service, beginning at 10:50 a. m. A nursery is also provided for infants and other children under three years of age during the worship service for adults.

Sermon Topic Is 'Matter'

Material beliefs and trusts must be expelled to make room for spiritual understanding and its rewards, according to the Sunday Bible Lesson on "Matter" in all Christian Science churches.

This counsel of Paul to the Colossians (3:2) constitutes the Golden Text: "Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth." The Lesson-Sermon includes these words of Jesus from Matthew (6:31, 33): "Take no thought, saying, What shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? or, Wherewithal shall we be clothed? . . . But seek ye first the Kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you."

On this subject, Mary Baker Eddy says in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures": "If we follow the command of our Master, 'Take no thought for your life,' we shall never depend on bodily conditions, structure, or economy, but we shall be masters of the body, dictate its terms, and form and control it with Truth" (p. 228).

Party Honors Two Pastors

A fellowship meeting and party honoring the 25th wedding anniversary of Revs. Henry and Ida Sande, pastors of the Assembly of God Church at 1317 Cravens Ave., will take place at the church Monday beginning at 2:30 p. m. Rev. Worlitz will speak during the afternoon service, and Rev. James Pearson, a former Army chaplain, will address the evening service at 7:30. Dinner will be served at 5 p. m. in the Guild Hall, 1543 Marcelina Ave. Rev. and Mrs. George P. Brown of Springfield, Ore., will be in Torrance March 25 to launch a revival meeting at the Assembly of God Church.

Nurses to Ask For Pay Raise

Requests for a salary range of $259-$319 per month for nurses at Harbor General Hospital will soon will be put before the Board of Supervisors. It was announced this week by the Los Angeles County Employees Union, Local No. 347 (AFL). E. L. Bratrud, business representative of the union, said that the salary of nurses working for county hospitals had not kept pace with cost of living increases during the past three years and that the nurses are not receiving wages comparable to those in private and government industry. Affiliation of county nurses with the Employees Local 347 has been recently completed, Bratrud said.

Rev. Crosby To Continue Lent Theme

The Rev. Hiram B. Crosby will be the special preacher at St. Andrew's Episcopal Church next Wednesday night. The Rev. Mr. Crosby is rector of St. Thomas of Canterbury Church in Long Beach. The church is located in the center of the vast Lakewood development and though it is only a few years old it already has over 500 members. The service, which begins at 8 p. m., is one of a series of Lenten services in preparation for Easter.

Reflections

By J. HUGH SHERFEE, JR.
HAPPY BIRTHDAY, CAMP FIRE GIRLS
There is one time in our lives when communion of spirit crowds out material things, when sordidness is held in shadows and the cross of the commonplace disappears. That time is at night, around a Camp Fire.

Around that Camp Fire there is beauty of hanging stars, silence of night pulls the curtain over worry and unpleasant things, flickering flames send stabs of illumination to caress features of comrades while hearts beat in rhythm to the mystery of creation. What a wonderful setting for girls to receive the formula for fine character, advice on better ways to live, and suggestions to appreciate spiritual values.

On the 21st we salute you and your leaders and wish you happiness and success.
